

The Great Receipt Race: 2020 Competition Rules

1. Participants are required to text a picture of their receipt to the phone number provided by REV Birmingham.
2. Phone numbers are the participants unique identifier, email or any other method of proof of purchase will not qualify.
3. Receipts or proof of purchase must include name of business, business address, and total cost of purchase to qualify.
4. Receipts or proof of purchase must be from a qualified business. Qualified businesses will be defined as:
 - a. A business located in the Birmingham City Limits
 - b. A business with 3 or fewer locations within Birmingham City Limits.
 - c. REV Birmingham holds the ultimate right to determine if a business is qualified for The Great Receipt Race.
5. Participants are only allowed to play one phone number per person.
6. Participants are only allowed one prize per phone number, not including the monthly raffles.
7. Participants are required to provide proof of their voucher when claiming a prize.
8. REV Birmingham makes no assurances that every qualifying participant will be awarded a prize.
9. Prizes are available while supplies last.
10. Each Friday, as part of highlighting black-owned businesses through social media and other means, contestants will receive double points for each receipt submitted from a black-owned business.
11. Awards will be determined by a raffle style drawing. Participants will have their unique identifier entered into the drawing to reflect the number of receipts submitted that week. Weekly winners will be awarded an assortment of goods and services from local Birmingham businesses, or a gift card.
 - a. For the sake of this competition, a week will be defined as seven days from Monday to Sunday.
 - b. Receipts must be submitted by Sunday at midnight to count toward the weekly raffle drawing. Receipts not submitted by Sunday at midnight, will not be entered into the weekly raffle drawing.
12. The Participants shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend REV Birmingham, its affiliates, and its respective partners, officers, directors, employees, contractors, agents and representatives (each of whom is an "Indemnified Party") against all liability, costs, actions, suits, judgments, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs) arising out of or resulting from (a) the negligent, reckless or willful acts or omissions of the Participants, its officers, directors, employees, members, independent contractors, or agents.

REV CREATES VIBRANT
COMMERCIAL DISTRICTS

@revbham
revbirmingham.org